Mr. W. George Clarke,
117 Harrington Street,
SYDNEY. N.S.W.

Dear George,

Having just arrived back from the University of New England, Armidale, I want to say how much I appreciated your support for me at the election a week ago.

If you had not been good enough to refer to the opportunity I had to be the Deputy-Chairman on the Authority I would have done so, not only because that information in my view countered the opinion that an academic would be unsuitable, but because as a Vice-President it was evident that at least one of our candidates could have a very good chance in the final selection.

We will just have to wait and see.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,
