In conjunction with the Civic Design Society of the University of New South Wales - discussion of the City of Sydney Strategic Plan 1971 to 1974 -

8 P.M. Friday, 16 August, 1974 at the Institute's Headquarters,
196 Miller Street, North Sydney, N.S.W. 2060.

The City of Sydney Council published its strategic plan in 1971 and since then has been pursuing a vigorous programme of action planning for various precincts and aspects of the plan. The first three yearly review of the plan has recently been published.

The strategic plan and consequent action plans have been important in helping to alter not only the physical environment of parts of the city but also expectations and attitudes to its physical, social and administrative environment.

The Royal Australian Planning Institute and the Civic Design Society cordially invites members and their friends to hear about and discuss the strategic plan, the action planning programme and the strategic plan review.

Speakers: Alderman Andrew Briger (Council of the City of Sydney)
Mr. Michael Llewellyn-Smith (Deputy City Planner, Council of the City of Sydney)
Mr. George Clarke (Urban Systems Corporation)

Chairman: Dr. John Roseth (President, Royal Australian Planning Institute)

Wine and cheese will be served after the meeting - all welcome!
