Dear Mr Clarke,

I am sorry this letter has been delayed, but I am writing to thank you for coming to the school on the 11th October, and speaking to our Sixth Formers, who are at present taking their matriculation examinations. I was not able to be present that afternoon due to having to attend a Headmistresses meeting, which is held only once a term. However, I heard from the pupils that your talk was interesting and enjoyable, so thank you once again for coming to Kambala to speak to the pupils.

Yours sincerely,

(Miss) J. D. Gibbons
