Dear Eve,

George and I so
enjoyed your marvellous party on Saturday night.
You had gathered together so many interesting and "beautiful" people
- we felt flattered to be included.

Your lovely house
seemed a ideal setting to celebrate the reception of the 1975 town planning award.
Standing on the verandah was a visual feast -
outside one caught glimpses

Of floodlit willows while inside I was intrigued by the juxtaposition of exotic Batik cushions
and a Brett Whiteley
chairman.

Your children and then friends dispensed intoxicating drinks and delicious food with a combined warmth and efficiency so often absent in a hired hand. —
all of which added
to the pleasant atmosphere of the Clarke house
with our thanks
Joan Mathman
