Dear George:

Thank you for your nice letter of April 22. I found it very informative and interesting on developments in Australia. It would be exciting to be involved in such an active development program.

At the present time we have pretty well completed our planning work in Washington and so have no position for an additional planner. Cities throughout the United States are looking for competent planners, however, and if you are interested in public work, you should have no difficulty in finding a good position.

Congratulations on becoming a father. It has happened to me twice and I recommend it highly.

Best regards,

William L. Slayton
