

1. The pattern of future metropolitan development -

- (a) Future population in the Sydney, Newcastle and Wollongong metropolitan region.
- (b) The cluster of cities within this metropolitan region.
- (c) The high density living areas around the core of each sub-city.
- (d) Many types of multiple dwellings within these high density areas.

2. The proportion of multiple dwellings to houses in the past, present and future development of Sydney.

- (a) Pre World War 2.
- (b) 1939 - 1958
- (c) 1958 - 1962
- (d) 1962 onwards.

3. Comprehensive development and redevelopment for medium and high density housing. The planning, design and construction of large scale projects - the new and necessary approach to residential development.

Wgb. Paper 29.5.61.